

Name: _____

Date: _____

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Welcome to the sheep industry! Fun Fact - Did you know that sheep are raised in every state in the United States? Let's test your knowledge on the sheep industry with 13 questions to see how much you personally know about this animal industry! Good luck!

Question 1 – Where did the sheep breed Columbia develop?

- a. United States
- b. Italy
- c. Greece
- d. Mexico

Question 2 – What do the letters A.S.I. stand for?

- a. American Sheep Innovation
- b. 140 days
- c. American Sheep Industry
- d. 165 days

Question 3 – Which of the following is a condition in sheep that can occur if an animal happens to ingest some sharp metal object and that object punctures the digestive tract causing peritonitis?

- a. Vibriosis
- b. Hardware Disease
- c. Brucellosis

Question 4 – True or False; The Dorper breed is a haired breed.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 5 – True or False; A ewe is in gestation for 130 days.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 6 – What is the scientific name for sheep?

- a. Ovine
- b. Caprine
- c. Bovine
- d. Equine

Question 7 – What breeds were involved in the development of the Oxford breed?

- a. Dorset and Columbia
- b. Hampshire and Cotswold
- c. Southdown and Suffolk

Question 8 – The first cloned mammal in the world was a sheep named what?

- a. Molly
- b. Dolly
- c. Dally

Question 9 – The Lincoln sheep breed originated in what country?

- a. England
- b. Scotland
- c. New Zealand

Question 10 – True or False; Scrapie is a disease that affects the central nervous system of sheep and goats,

- a. True
- b. False

Question 11 – True or False, Sheep are aggressive foragers, so they are very susceptible to internal parasites.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 12 – Late spring lambs are born in what months?

- a. January, February
- b. March, April, May
- c. June, July

Question 13 – Which of the following sheep breeds is not a medium-wool breed.

- a. Dorset
- b. Hampshire
- c. Shropshire
- d. Suffolk
- e. Merino

Name: _____ ANSWER KEY _____ Date: _____

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Welcome to the sheep industry! Fun Fact - Did you know that sheep are raised in every state in the United States? Let's test your knowledge on the sheep industry with 13 questions to see how much you personally know about this animal industry! Good luck!

Question 1 – Where did the sheep breed Columbia develop?

- a. United States
- b. Italy
- c. Greece
- d. Mexico

Question 2 – What do the letters A.S.I. stand for?

- a. American Sheep Innovation
- b. 140 days
- c. American Sheep Industry
- d. 165 days

Question 3 – Which of the following is a condition in sheep that can occur if an animal happens to ingest some sharp metal object and that object punctures the digestive tract causing peritonitis?

- a. Vibriosis
- b. Hardware Disease
- c. Brucellosis

Question 4 – True or False; The Dorper breed is a haired breed.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 5 – True or False; A ewe is in gestation for 130 days.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 6 – What is the scientific name for sheep?

- a. Ovine
- b. Caprine
- c. Bovine
- d. Equine

Question 7 – What breeds were involved in the development of the Oxford breed?

- a. Dorset and Columbia
- b. Hampshire and Cotswold
- c. Southdown and Suffolk

Question 8 – The first cloned mammal in the world was a sheep named what?

- a. Molly
- b. Dolly
- c. Dally

Question 9 – The Lincoln sheep breed originated in what country?

- a. England
- b. Scotland
- c. New Zealand

Question 10 – True or False; Scrapie is a disease that affects the central nervous system of sheep and goats,

- a. True
- b. False

Question 11 – True or False, Sheep are aggressive foragers, so they are very susceptible to internal parasites.

- a. True
- b. False

Question 12 – Late spring lambs are born in what months?

- a. January, February
- b. March, April, May
- c. June, July

Question 13 – Which of the following sheep breeds is not a medium-wool breed.

- a. Dorset
- b. Hampshire
- c. Shropshire
- d. Suffolk
- e. Merino